

Lesley Pocock is Publisher and Managing Director of medi+WORLD International (mWI), which specialises in multimedia based medical education and information services as well as strategic global work for nations and NGOs, looking particularly at parity and equity of medical education. mWI also publish 6 medical journals, over 60 multimedia medical education titles, and national CME and CPD programs for low income nations.